

LOOK AT THE TIME!

TIME REFERENCES

The time now is three o'clock in the afternoon:
Add the missing words that indicates the time
something happened that day:

e.g.

Not two hours ago Peter had attended a boring project meeting.

ACTIVITY:

31
possible
points

Peter _____ a diner appointment, with a potential client, _____ that evening and so he left home just _____ seven o'clock.

_____ that morning, Peter _____ for a run.
_____ that morning, Peter _____ for a run before work.

ACTIVITY CONTINUED:

An hour _____, Peter _____ his tea break.
An hour _____, Peter _____ to tea.

Peter _____ battled to get to sleep the night
_____ and so he was exhausted all day.

On his way home, _____ work, Peter _____ stuck in traffic.

Peter's work dinner ended _____ and so he _____ a taxi home, instead of using the tube.

Peter _____ forty minutes late for work that morning, _____ not sleeping well the night _____.

ACTIVITY CONTINUED:

Peter decided to _____ a few minutes to check on the results of the system test he _____ running in the background, _____ returning to work.

As he _____ a very organised man, Peter _____ everything laid out and waiting from the night _____ and so there was little to do in the morning, except _____ dressed.

As arranged, Peter _____ his client at the restaurant at eight o'clock that evening,